

PSI Advisors, LLC
FORM CRS – Customer Relationship Summary

March 20, 2026

PSI Advisors, LLC is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment adviser and, as such, we provide advisory services rather than brokerage services. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you, our client, to understand the differences. Additionally, free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing. This document is a summary of the services and fees we offer to "retail" investors, which are natural persons who seek or receive services primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

What investment services and advice can you provide me? We offer the following investment advisory services to retail investors: Financial Planning Services; Portfolio Management Services; Pension Consulting Services; Selection of Other Advisers; Educational seminars/workshops; Sponsor and Manager of a Wrap Fee Program. Detailed information regarding our services, fees and other disclosures can be found in our Form ADV Part 2A Items 4, 7, and 8 and Form ADV Part 2 Appendix 1 Brochures Items 4 and 5 by clicking this link <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/285880>.

- Account Monitoring: If you open an investment account with our firm, as part of our standard service we will monitor your investments on a monthly basis. Our monitoring of your investment accounts is limited in so far as the securities that are being monitored, such as structured products, are illiquid or non-marketable so the valuations are difficult to monitor on a daily or monthly basis.
- Investment Authority: We manage investment accounts on a discretionary basis whereby we will decide which investments to buy or sell for your account. We have discretion to select, retain or replace third-party managers to manage your accounts. You may limit our discretionary authority (for example, limiting the types of securities that can be purchased or sold for your account) by providing our firm with your restrictions and guidelines in writing. We also offer nondiscretionary investment management services whereby we will provide advice, but you will ultimately decide which investments to buy and sell for your account. You have an unrestricted right to decline to implement any advice provided by our firm on a non-discretionary basis.
- Investment Offerings: We provide advice on various types of investments. Our services are limited to a specific type of investment or product.
- Account Minimums and Requirements: In general, we do not require a minimum dollar amount to open and maintain an advisory account; however, we have the right to terminate your account if it falls below a minimum size which, in our sole opinion, is too small to manage effectively.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or Why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications?
- What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

The following summarizes the principal fees and costs associated with engaging our firm for investment advisory services and are based on the type of account you open with us. For detailed information, refer to our Form ADV Part 2A, Items 5 and 6 and Form ADV Part 2 Appendix 1 Brochures by clicking this link <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/285880>.

- Asset Based Fees -Payable quarterly in advance. Since the fees we receive are asset-based (i.e. based on the value of your account), we have an incentive to increase your account value which creates a conflict especially for those accounts holding illiquid or hard-to-value assets; or
- Hourly Fees -Payable in advance; or
- Fixed Fees -Payable as invoiced; or
- Wrap Program Fees -Payable quarterly in advance, based on the balance at end of billing period. Asset-based fees associated with a wrap fee program generally include most transaction costs and fees to a broker-dealer or bank that has custody of the assets; therefore, the asset-based fee is higher than a typical asset-based advisory fee. Since our firm pays the transaction costs associated with securities transactions in your account, we have an incentive to minimize the trading in your account.

In addition to our principal fees and costs, there are other common fees and costs that may be applicable to our clients including: Custodian fees; Account maintenance fees; Fees related to mutual funds and exchange-traded funds; Transaction charges when purchasing or selling securities; and other product-level fees associated with your investments

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

- Compensation from Third Parties: Individuals associated with our firm receive compensation in the form of soft dollar arrangements from third parties for recommending or selling investments. Please refer to Form ADV Part 2A Brochure, Item 12.
- Third-Party Payments: Persons providing advice on behalf of our firm are registered representatives with a broker-dealer. These persons receive compensation in connection with the purchase and sale of securities or other investment products. Compensation earned by these persons is separate and in addition to our advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest because they have an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received rather than solely based on your needs.
- Other Third-Party Payments: Persons providing investment advice on behalf of our firm are licensed as independent insurance agents. These persons will earn commission-based compensation for selling insurance products. Insurance commissions are separate and in addition to our advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest because they have an incentive to recommend insurance products to you which will generate commissions.

Refer to our Form ADV Part 2A and Form ADV Part 2 Appendix 1 Brochures by clicking this link <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/285880> to help you understand what conflicts exist.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

The financial professionals servicing your account(s) are compensated based on the revenue the firm earns from the individual's services or recommendations. Financial professionals are paid a percentage of the assets under management they manage (fee payments). Additionally, the owner of PSI Advisors, LLC occasionally takes quarterly distributions from the firm's profit. The payment of a percentage of assets under management paid to our financial professionals involves a conflict of interest because they have a financial incentive to refer clients to our firm.

Some of our financial professionals are registered representatives of LPL Financial LLC ("LPL"), an SEC registered broker-dealer and investment adviser. Your financial professional may offer your brokerage services through LPL or investment advisory services through our firm, PSI Advisors, LLC. Brokerage services and investment advisory services are different, and the fees we, and LPL, charge for those services are different. It is important that you understand the differences. In particular, your financial professional may earn additional transaction-based compensation and have additional conflicts of interest as a result of providing brokerage services through LPL. You are encouraged to learn more about LPL by reviewing <https://www.lpl.com/disclosures.html> and having a discussion with your financial professional.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

Yes. Visit investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research us and our financial professionals.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional
